Eight Reasons Why You Love Us

- 1 Because of the enjoyable experience

From the moment you contact us till the moment that the job is completed you will feel respected and treated with professionalism all the way. That means that your experience will be enjoyable and with no stress.
- 2 Because of our knowledge

Our veteran certified inspector Don Harari has done more than 5000 jobs in different stones. That means that your inspected stone will receive the right perception.
- 3 Because of our experience

We have a combined field experience of 50 years. That means that you'll have the confidence that your job is done right.
- 4 Because of our reputation

80% of our business came from repeat and referrals. That means that our clients trust us and so will you.
- 5 Because of our attention to details

We devote a lot of time to protect properly all your belongings against dust, dirt, water, chemical spills, etc. We do corners and edges. We clean grout by hand. We inspect and check ourselves after each step. That means that your job is done properly.
- 6 Because of our professionalism

We are on time, organized, creating no-mess, conscientious about your belongings and respect for you. That means that you will get the best possible results.
- 7 Because of our people

Polite. Courteous. Hard working. Quiet. On Time. Accommodating. Communicating. That means less aggravation knowing that you have in your property workers that you can trust.
- 8 Because we care

We continue our relationship with our clients after the job by providing guidance for proper maintenance, products and training of the housekeeper and sending you reminders and bi-monthly newsletter! That means that you will have peace of mind knowing that we remember and follow up on your stone on a regular basis.
